

adverb – adjectivefill in adverb or adjective

She is a _____ dancer. (good)

She speaks English _____. (fluent)

The boy is _____. (loud)

This exercise is _____. (simple)

Please speak _____. (clear)

Her English is _____. (fluent)

Our mum was _____. (angry)

John always sings _____. (bad)

If you learn English _____ you will be able to speak it

_____. (good)

Suddenly there was a _____ noise. (loud)

The boy opened his eyes _____. (slow)

He shouts _____. (loud)

You must be _____ (careful) and drive very _____ (slow), because traffic is getting busy.

The animal was very _____ to the children. (kind)

Our teacher was very _____ (angry)

The children were playing _____ next the clear blue water. (quiet)

My neighbour is a _____ driver. (careless)

She often sneaks (schleicht) out of the house _____. (quiet)

Peter is _____. (lazy)

A big animal came _____ around the corner. (slow)

The cars are very _____. (fast)

Life treats him _____. (bad)

You are _____, are you? (thirsty)

Early in the morning the boy _____ opened his eyes. (slow)

The sun was shining _____ (bright). When we _____ (quick) went downstairs, he heard the _____ (loud) and

_____ (angry) voices of his little sister and his mother. He had a _____ (quick) cup of tea and a _____ (small) sandwich.

Then he took his _____ (heavy) schoolbag and went to the bus stop.

fill in good or well

I thought you were _____. You played very _____.

It's a _____ book. The author writes extremely _____.

You answered that question _____. That was very _____.

I am not explaining this very _____.

It wasn't a very _____ explanation.

Do they pay _____? No, the money is not _____.

The interview went _____. I was _____ prepared.

This picture is _____.