

Fill in: there is / there are

There is a bed in the room.

There are two aeroplanes above the bed.

There is a window opposite the door.

There are glasses on the desk.

There is a lamp on the desk.

There are posters on the wall.

There are a lot of books on the shelf.

There is a ball on the bed.

There is a train on the floor.

There is a radio next to the bed.

There is a robot on the window shelf.

There are shoes between the train and the desk.

There is a scarf on the chair.

There are some pencils on the desk.

There is a book between the glasses and the pencils.

There is brown light on the ceiling.

Fill in: they are, there are

Sie sind sehr hungrig. They are very hungry.

In der Früh sind sie sehr müde.

In the morning they are very tired.

Da sind viele komische Hunde.

There are many funny dogs.

In der Stadt gibt es (da sind) viele weiße Autos.

In the city there are many white cars.

“Come and see my friends. They are very nice!”

At school there are many classrooms.

This is Mr and Mrs Brown. They are old.

There are many trees in the park.

Fill in: they their, there

Mum and Dad are sad. Are they sad?

Peter and Sue wash their hands.

Look! There is a bird.

Look at the dogs. They run quickly.

Is there a school in your street?

The children can't find their books.

In summer they eat a lot of ice cream.

Look! There comes your mother.

Their caravans are big.

The children cannot find their books.

Look, they are over there.

The boys have got their balls.

There are many boys in our class.

Look at the children. All their clothes are dirty!

There is no pencil on the desk.