

fill in already or yet

We've already been to England.

Has everybody arrived yet?

Jane has already got up.

Have you finished your lunch yet?

I have already repaired your car.

We haven't found the answer yet.

Everybody has already gone home.

They haven't seen St. Paul's Cathedral yet.

You don't have to do it. I've already done it.

I've had no time. I haven't done it yet.

I've already told you what to do. Listen carefully this time.

The plane has already arrived. It was really early.

There's no need to tell him. He already knows.

We haven't finished yet. Nobody else knows yet.

I have already done this type of work before.

I bought it seven years ago and I haven't had any problems yet.

Is it already nine o' clock?

Oh no! It's already raining.

Is the pizza cooked yet?

We've already had our breakfast.

When are you going to do your homework? But I've already done it!

Have you done your homework? Not yet.

Do you want a cup of coffee? No, thanks, I've already had one."

Has the post arrived yet?

Haven't you got ready yet? Look at the time!
